BULL-DOZING BEGUN.

The very fact that the temperate and sensible tone of the Mayor's Address elicited a general expression of approval among our intelligent citizens, led us to anticipate a bitter attack upon him by the demagogues's organ, which had assumed a sort of dictatorship over the incoming City Government. We were not mistaken, but the assault came even sooner than we expected, the Commercial devoting nearly two columns last evening to abuse of the Mayor because he stated the facts of last year's administration as plainly exhibited in the official reports and because he did not echo that paper's false and malicious charges of inefficiency and extravagance against the City Council which has just rendered a full and most creditable account of its stewardship. The injustice and obvious spitefulness of this attack, very clearly exposes the animus of the sheet, which has simply been trying to further the designs of the Democratic party, under a very transparent disguise of reform.

We feel—and the vast majority of respectable citizens will share the feeling with us—that the Mayor is, to be sincerely congratulated upon incurring the hostility of a sheet which would never be friendly to him on any other terms than would inure to its partisan advantage, and whose shameful record of pandering to all sorts of vice, renders its over-zealous championship of "reform" a most contemptible farce.

Such a tremendous snapping of the whip by a small whipster as that of last evening, we have rarely known, and it is really amusing to note the tone of authority with which the Democratic editor reads the Republican Mayor out of the "new party," and peremptorily orders the republicans of the City Council to march up and receive his instructions.

It is all very funny to spectators, but we would hint to our inflated neighbor, that perhaps he has started the bull-dozing a little too rashly, and that he may not find the members of the present City Government ready to put themselves entirely under his thumb.

The work of conducting the administration of our municipal affairs during the year, is to be done at the City Hall, by two boards of officers chosen for that purpose, and we imagine that the citizens composing those boards will be inclined to act for themselves rather than register the decrees of a newspaper office in Central street. The interests of this community must be conserved by wise and considerate action, and not by the incoherent ravings of an arrant partisan demagogue.

We think our Democratic contemporary has commenced cracking his whip too early and too vigorously for the advantage of the schemes he has in view, for republican citizens of Bangor have never been worked to be driven by his lash, and the members of the new City Government will be very likely to insist upon transacting the public business according to their own judgment. We don't believe Democratic bull-dozing will prove a success in Bangor.

THE ANDERSON CASE.

The latest phase of the Louisiana proceedings indicates that Nicholls, fearing to suffer himself, has induced his Chief Justice to cut the Gordian knot for him, by setting aside the verdict against Anderson and discharging him from custody. The action taken only serves to confirm the truth of the charge that the prosecutions were malicious and the trial and verdict outrages upon every element of justice. And since it is the Supreme Court of a sovereign State" which has pronounced the trial of Anderson a mockery and fraud, the Stald Rights Democracy will have hard work to evade the condemnation of the outrage.

FALSEHOOD AND TRUTH.

They moreover forget to state that the most pronounced Hayes editor—Colonel Moore—was elected to the Legislature, while the most pronounced anti-Hayes editor in the State was defeated in a strong Republican ward.—Boston Journal.

There is considerable comment in New Hampshire over a conspicuous falsehood invented by the Journal; and as that paper has not seen fit to correct it we are requested to do so. In response to the report that the only pronounced Hayes editor who ran for the Legislature, Moore, of Nashua, stood far behind the Republican ticket, it said that an anti-Hayes editor in a strong Republican district was defeated. There was but one anti-Hayes editor in the state running for the Legislature, Mr. W. H. Stevens, of the Concord Monitor, and he was elected by the full party vote, while a young "Hayes man" in the same town ran behind the ticket. As it stands, the only signal loss to the Republican party was where the only rampant Hayes editor in New Hampshire claimed official recognition as a reward for "reform," and the Journal is convicted of malicious falsification.—Boston Traveller.

The Democrats in the House did what they could on Saturday to get themselves out of the ugly scrape into which the exposure of the Confederate Postmaster scheme had forced them. They brought up the measure, limited debate on it to ten minutes, made solemn protests of their utter innocence, and then killed the bill. For the present, in this particular form, the raid on the Treasury has failed. That it will be renewed when opportunity offers there can be no doubt. The men who concocted this latest device are hungry and greedy and they will not consent to keep quiet for the sake of Democratic consistency or to save the party's honor in Congress. And the position of Mr. Reagan in regard to the matter is proof enough, if any were wanting, to what lengths their leaders are prepared to go. The cruel exposure to which they have just been subjected will render them more cautious, but that is all.—N. Y. Times.

CHEERFUL GRAIN REPORT. The Cincinnati Gazette publishes numerous dispatches and letters from the entire wheat-growing district in the States of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. All these are of the most cheerful character. The acreage sown last fall was the largest for years, in some sections being 50 per cent. above the average. Everywhere the crop seems to have passed the winter without damage and is now in a splendid growing condition. The uniform testimony of men of experience in all these States is that the prospect of the crop was never better at this season of the year. The advices from Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and other wheat producing States of the West have the same encouraging story to tell of a large acreage and unusual promise.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

PERSECUTION OF GEN. HOWARD—A TEAR OF CONCILIATION—REBEL RAIDS ON THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17th, 1878.

A meaner, more spiteful persecution was never waged by personal enemies not even by Bourbon Democracy than that which culminated the other day here in the Criminal Court, in the triumphant acquittal of General O. O. Howard, in all three of the suits against him for retention or misappropriation of funds entrusted to him as late Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau. Not one of the many who were instruction in the war for the suppression of the rebellion, has been pursued with a malice more ingenious or persistent. It followed him on to every battle-field, belittling his many, gallant and meritorious achievements, exaggerating and magnifying every misfortune and disaster with which he could, by any distortion of facts, be connected. It dug pit-falls at every step along the half-defined, newly-created highway he had to traverse as first, last and only Chief of a Bureau rendered necessary by the hostility and treachery to the freedmen of Chief Executive who reached that position through professions of friendship for them quite as profuse as those of later one, and proved almost as faithless. It dogged the foot-steps of him and his life army to and fro during the arduous Nez Perces campaign, deriding and ridiculing the heroic endurance that finally leaped and garnered as its legitimate harvest Chief Joseph and his hostile force. No one has forgotten the despicable attempt made to rob him of all credit in this consummation so devoutly wished, when he was entitled to the Bonds share.

Failing in this and rendered desperate by the miscarriage of all previous efforts at Howard's annihilation, substantially the same old charges upon which he had once before been arraigned and acquitted after an exhaustive inquiry, were re-vamped with the result above stated. Though he is understood to have been stripped of all most all his slow accumulations in conducting defenses which the Government should in equity have undertaken, he has the gratification of knowing that his character as Christian, philanthropist and patriot, never was in higher repute with his loyal and intelligent fellow countrymen than to-day. He has entered hardened as a good soldier, and the machinations of baffled treason with a serenity only possible with those conscious of their own rectitude; and though he aggravated his original offence of loyalty to the Government that had educated and made him, in the time of her need and distress, by his subsequent efforts specially directed to the elevation of the emancipated race, what he lost thereby in the esteem of perjured Wall Pointers, members of Congress and others who strove to destroy that, as left they had sworn to defend and protect at the cost of life even, was returned to him many fold through the regards of those who count treason a crime and an oath a solemn covenant of sacred and binding import.

TWELVE MONTHS OF CONCILIATION.

Twelve months of Hayes' "conciliation" and a pretended Civil Service Reform, sustaining about the same relations to the genuine that his practices as President do to his former preaching as any member of the party, has emancipated about the last Republican whose views are known here, from the "pacification" craze; and with practically one accord they are asking why they party should longer acknowledge even a nominal allegiance to the mortifying abortion that, somehow, has usurped the place of the Republican administration contracted for at Cincinnati. The lamentable mistake then made is acknowledged with a unanimity almost absolute. In the light of political home events of the past year, the ardor of the most enthusiastic in favor at that convention of a line of policy that would "disestablish the machine" has sunk to zero. They are now more than willing to endorse the wisdom of Mr. Lincoln's admonition against "swapping horses while crossing a stream," and though done with their concurrence, they can not but deplore the change of front that was successfully inaugurated at the nomina ting convention, in the face of an unscrupulous and faithless enemy.

With no attempt at detailing successive events or grouping results, it may be said that by order of the chief whose elevation to that position was at such a fearful cost of the blood and life of devoted men, one stronghold after another has been surrendered till scarcely one within the limits of the late Confederacy remains completly under Republican control. In many of those farther North, nominally commanded by men who sympathized with the Union cause, so many of the subordinate positions have been emptied of their Republican incumbents to be replaced by soldiers of fortune, camp-followers of the administration, political hybrids, "good Lord good Devil" sort of reformers, that insubordination which is unlawful to punish, is ripe, and successful revolt probable.

It don't require a great intellect to apprehend a proposition so self evident. Whether Mr. Hayes does or does not, it is now hardly relevant to inquire. If he does he has deliberately chosen the bad part—has wedded to his idols and is, agreeably with the command, to be let alone. If he does not, the evidence of his capacity is not sufficient to encourage the hope that he will speedily learn it and govern himself accordingly; and the party must suffer the legitimate penalty of its fatuity and lack of penetration.

REBEL RAIDS ON THE TREASURY.

The vast number of rebel claims now pending before Congress, coupled with the startled outcry from the policy organs against the impending raid on the Treasury seems, at last, to have awakened the country to its peril. It is now patent, that the success of the matured plan on its present magnificent scale, will leave that receptacle of Uncle Sam's funds in a hopelessly bankrupt and collapsed condition, rendering wholesale repudiation a necessity. In view of the retrograde movement encouraged by a spurious Republican Administration during the twelve-months just passed, and the universal ruin threatened through its faithlessness and its truckling to the disloyal and most dangerous elements, the inquiry is pertinent, why remain longer chained to the body of this death?

E. K. H.

That old story about 36 custom houses which don't pay expenses is going around again, but it proves nothing. Take the three in Massachusetts, for instance: Barnstable, Edgartown and Nantucket. To be sure, the collections are more than $5000 less than the expenses, the latter amounting to nearly $36,000, but is the prevention of smuggling not to be taken into account? The Government gets all it pays for from these custom houses, and has no cause to complain.—Boston Herald.

The New Orleans Times of recent date says: "It would be uncandid, not to say dishonest, to deny that our people are profoundly and sorely disappointed in the results of reform as far as it has gone. Times are harder than they were under Radical rule, and taxes are as difficult to pay as ever."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Nobody manifests a consuming desire to pay 102 cents for more than one 90-cent dollar.

The dollar of the sons is as obstinate about rolling as was that of the fathers.

The Democrats in Congress are political safe-b owers. If boy can force the doors of the public treasury Uncle Sam will have no further trouble looking after his reserve. Indianapolis Journal.

The New Hampshire Republicans seem to have braced up, notwithstanding the Old Man of the Sea who clings to their back, which the same is the Southern policy and the obstinate Filibusters that brought it to light. The Republican party may be dead, but the corpse is capable of standing a good deal of strain, and it would not be surprising if it got its game leg straightened out in 1880 and made quite a respectable ggee. New Hampshire has given a hint in that direction. Burlington Hawk Eye.

Very modest are our conciliated friends at the South. The Tribune's list of bills and resolutions in Congress, and log money for the Southern States, foots up over $150,000,000. If the rebel states secure that much, the loyal North should receive twenty times that amount. But the President says the South must be conciliated at any price. That explains his chameleonic change of his bled in November, 1870, when he thought Tilden was elected and the negro would not get the forty acres and a mule. To-day it bleeds because the Southern rebel will not get his millions—not if the North understands herself. Blue Republican.

The venerable Rev. Stephen Thurston, D. D., of Maine, who, at eighty-three years of age, is as vigorous as most of men at six y occupied the Presbyterian church pul at East Boston last Sunday.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK. A New York correspondent of the Hartford Times says:

Reports from business quarters as to the spring trade prospects are mostly favorable. The feeling is pretty general that prices have really touched bottom, and this lends to general confidence, which is a great equal to any amount of money here. The spring trade does not amount to much as yet, doubtless because the weather has been as unseasonable. But most of the prominent merchants who have been talked with on the subject, express the opinion that the business will be done in the next six weeks. The hotel register is also steadily increasing, arrivals from the west and south, and this is a good sign for the business men, who watch the hotels as closely as the weather men watch the barometer. They all say, however, that the era of large profits is past. Competition has become so close that the margin is small in all lines of business, and will remain so.

A native of Maine, now an influential citizen of far-off Colorado, in renewing his subscription for our paper, adds the following remarks:

I guess by this time you opinions in reference to Hayes' policy will be accepted as truth. They have been fearless and unwavering for the right, which must triumph. "Keep the head-lights shining;" their rays are bound to safely guide the Republicans of dear old Maine; yes, at I they are far reaching in the West.

Yours in hope of Republican justice.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS—Second Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 19.

Mr. Matthews said that he was directed by the majority of the Committee on Railroads to report back the two Senate bills in regard to the Texas Pacific Railroad, one introduced by Johnston and the other by Hereford, with a substitute, and to recommend the passage. Calendar.

He also reported back from the same committee the Senate bill to authorize the Southern Pacific Co to extend its railroad from the present terminus in Arizona to a point on the Rio Grande near El Paso and to aid in building the same, without amendment and without recommendation. Calendar.

The House bill to authorize the granting of American register to a foreign built ship to the Woodruff Scientific Expedition passed.

Mr. Bailey by request introduced a bill for the better protection of acting plays and dramatic literature. Library.

Mr. Matthews offered a resolution directing the Attorney General to determine the legal rights of the United States in relation to land granted to Indiana by the act of May 6, 1 24.

A communication from the Secretary of the Navy asking for an additional appropriation for printing, was referred to the committee on Appropriations.

The bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to make certain negotiations with the Indians in Colorado passed.

The bill providing for appropriation for protecting trespassers on public lands, or bringing into market timber cut on public lands, was taken up and discussed. A number of amendments were offered, and a lengthy debate occurred, indulged in by Messrs. Hoar, Dawes, Blaine, Sargent and others.

The Military Academy Appropriation bill with a message from the House of Representatives, disagreeing to the various amendments of the Senate to that bill on motion of Windom the Senate insisted on its amendments and a Committee of Conference was ordered.

Adjourned

House.

Mr Harrison, Chairman of the Civil Service Reform submitted the majority report of that committee. On the matter of charges against Doorkeeper Polk it declines Polk guilt for the responsibilities of the position and recommends the adoption of a resolution declaring the office of doorkeeper vacant, and devolving its duties upon the Sergeant-at-Arms until the appointment of a new doorkeeper."

The minority report, signed by Messrs. Cox, Reagans, Garth and Fleary, declares that no corrupt motive having been proven against Polk it would be grievous wrong to adopt the majority resolution.

The reports were ordered printed and recommitted, and Mr. Harrison gave notice that he would call it up for action on Saturday next.

The House Judiciary Committee authorized their chairman to report the House bill repealing the Bankrupt law, to take effect as to voluntary proceedings immediately after the passage, and as to involuntary proceedings from and after July 1st 1878.

Mr. Buchanan, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the West Point Academy bill, recommending Senate amendment, limiting the President to ten appointments of cadets during his term instead of ten per year as at present. Discussion ensued, but the report was finally agreed to.

The Senate bill appointing Gen. Sherman a Regent of the Smithsonian, vice Hon. Geo. Bancroft, resigned, was passed, and the House adjourned.

It is stated that half a million bonds have been bought here within the last twenty-four hours for Bostonians who have drawn their money from Savings Banks.

WASHINGTON

Secretary Sherman on the Silver Bill—A Few Words on Resumption.

WASHINGTON March 19. Secretary Sherman appeared before the Senate Finance Committee yesterday, in opposition to the repeal of the resumption act. The questions discussed were with regard to the practicability of specie payments and the effect of the silver bill on resumption and whether the Silver bill assisted or retarded resumption and other questions in that connection. The Secretary took the ground that the remonetization of silver was an aid to resumption. The silver bill did some good and some harm. One way in which it was harmful was the return of bonds from abroad; but it produced good by increasing foreign confidence in our bonds by reason of the fact that our own people took them up in large quantities. He was strongly opposed to the repeal of the resumption act. In his opinion the resumption of specie payments could not be permanently maintained without retaining the legal tender function for about three hundred millions of United States notes; or in other words, that legal tender notes after reaching par, should be paid out again for Government disbursements.

Cabinet Meeting—The Southern Question Discussed.

WASHINGTON, March 19. The general condition of affairs in the South with particular reference to the decision of the Supreme Court of Louisiana and the action of Governor Hampton in bringing the militia force of South Carolina to the assistance of the Government in its efforts to enforce the Revenue laws in that State, were subjects of discussion at the Cabinet meeting to-day. Expressions of satisfaction therewith were made by the President and his Cabinet. The President did not hesitate to say that the events noted should be regarded as an indication of the proper state of public feeling in the South

Other Matters

The Cabinet was also engaged with the consideration of various appointments, list of Government Directors of the Pacific Railroad has been agreed upon. The session lasted only an hour and a half. Secretary Evarts remained a long time in consultation with the President, after the other members of the Cabinet had gone.

LOUISIANA.

The Anderson Case—The Attorney General Agrieved—Speculations About Wells, Republican, Hard Reported.

NEW YORK, March 19. A New Orleans special says that Governor Nicholls last night declined expressing an opinion on the release of Anderson but was evidently well pleased with the decision of the court. It is believed that Attorney General Ogden, who at first was believed satisfied with the decision of the court, now feels aggrieved, and will push a motion to re open the case.

It may be stated authoritatively that Wells' case will be opened as soon as possible, and every effort will be made to push it. It is thought that there is a much stronger case against him than Anderson, and that there are far greater chance of his being punished. Both Wells and Anderson have powerful friends in the State, however, outside of the Republican party, and the decision of the Supreme Court will have the effect to strengthen the efforts in their behalf. There is a more hopeful feeling among Republicans here. They are beginning to believe that Nicholls and the Supreme Court intend to see justice done them in all matters, and they begin to exert more interest in the future of the State.

A Large Riot in Toronto.

THE MOB ATTACK TWO HOTELS.

Vigorous Attack by the Police.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY INJURED.

The Roughs Under Control.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19. Shortly after midnight a mob advanced up Queen street and attacked Cosgove's tavern. The crowd inside answered with revolvers and the rioters returned the fire. Hundreds of shots were exchanged, and stones were poured into the house until the window sashes and furniture were completely destroyed. The police, 90 strong, charged the mob and wielded batons with great vigor. Four men were shot here, one a young Protestant, named James Clegg, it is feared fatally.

Meantime another mob of one thousand strong opened fire with stones on Collin's tavern, further up Queen street, where Russa was believed to be. Revolvers were used here, but the police fighting with matchless pluck against enormous odds, cleared the street. Ross was driver out of the city at 11 o'clock. Policeman Worth was struck on the temple with a cobble stone, knocked senseless and his comrades more or less injured.

Probably one hundred and fifty rioters were injured with stones and batons. The doctors' rooms are crowded, but as a rule the wounded went home or were taken to the police station. At 2 o'clock this morning hundreds of roughs were congregated in gangs in the lanes and back streets, and the police are parading the streets in force.

GREENFIELD. A correspondent writes: The statement in the Commercial that the officers of the Town of Greenfield had embezzled the town's money to any extent is entirely without foundation. The ones that have tried to thrust aside the old Board of Selectmen and get the office themselves have talked until they have blown themselves out and nothing now remains of them.

HOUSE CLEANING. An exchange says: "In a few short weeks the average woman of the house will be eating hash whenever and however she can get them, and wondering in his heart of hearts if that tired, cross, dusty woman is the same one whom he married long ago in the glad and happy spring-time of youth and as thoughts of that happy time come stealing through his brain, a pleased smile at the recollection will flit over his features, and his soul be buried in echoes of bliss. But his wife will wake him up out of that by saying: "Come John, hurry and finish your dinner and help me beat that hole out yet." Then Heaven will fly and the last and poise in the house and dirt in the butter will all come back to him."

PROF. HARTZ. By referring to another column it will be seen that his celebrated magician will make his first appearance in this city next Monday, when he will present his original programme entitled "Two hours in fairy land." The press speak in the most flattering terms of the gentleman's entertainments. The Worcester (Mass.) Spy says:

The stage of Mechanics Hall was turned into a bower of song last evening, and the vast auditorium was filled with people desirous of seeing the great magician, Hartz. We say "great" advisedly, for none have yet appeared here who can be even remotely compared to Prof. Hartz. The best of his tricks, last evening, was the water trick—a pail filled with water being turned into a bowl of milk, then into a pail full of water, and finally came to the conclusion that he must be speeding the night with one of the neighbors, but as he did not come home in the morning a search was instituted with the above result. The real cause for this rash act is unknown. He left his wife, some five years since, and it is supposed that this and the fact that he was unable to find steady employment, being a cripple, preyed on his mind to such an extent that he took his own life.

THE SERENADE QUARTETTE.

An Excellent Concert and Large Audience

Notwithstanding the fact that the walking was exceedingly unfavorable last evening, a large audience assembled at City Hall. The concert, under the auspices of the Seminary Quartette, comprised of Messrs. Allebin, True, Smith and Blanchard, was a great success, and these young gentlemen deserve great credit for their untiring efforts in perfecting their arrangements. A little before eight o'clock Prof. Sewall announced the opening piece and the concert was carried out in accordance with the following

7. QUARTETTE—"Good night." Seminary Quartette.

The opening Quartette was very fine and showed that they have paid great attention to their music. The readings by Miss Laughton and Mrs. Sellick were excellent and very enthusiastically received by the audience. Mr. Farrington's selection was rendered with fine effect. The second selection by the Quartette was finely given and well merited the hearty encore which it received at the hands of the audience.—Mr. Haynes sang in his usual pleasing manner, and in response to the encore used applause he sang "The Normandy Maid." Miss Cooke received a very flattering reception, and being encored she responded with the song entitled "Farewell." The piano solo by Mrs. Jewell, who also played the various accompaniments, was of the highest order.
